

New Template of Understanding:
An Authentic Passageway to Living Life on Fifth Dimensional Earth

Conscious Evolution: A New World View, Part 6

“A new template of understanding inspires us towards an authentic passageway
to living life on fifth dimensional Earth.
This new course is a moment to moment evolutionary journey that enables us to reach our full human capability.”

Welcome... to the reading of this sixth editorial on Conscious Evolution titled, “New Template of Understanding: An Authentic Passageway to Living Life on Fifth Dimensional Earth.” As a point of reference my previous article: “Seeding the New Prototype for Earth,” contained information on the essential transfiguration of Earth’s body of consciousness and the seeding of its new prototype to support the new blueprint of human life. Since December, 2012, we can appreciate the importance of how the cosmic birth of this new stellar configuration is paving the way for humanity to begin its authentic passageway to living life on fifth dimensional Earth.

Consciousness, in its multidimensional form, radiates outward as a unified field of cohesion. In my perspective, it emanates from a non-dualistic time-space continuum, and is an inclusive turning point in our awareness where we accurately assimilate an in-depth perception of the holographic “5D template of understanding.” A conscious understanding of what this template transmits helps us as we create and implement the 5D blueprint for our new way of life. Its in-depth perception upholds that all human life shifts its framework of individual consciousness into a cohesive field of resonance. When we attain this imminent resonance, we have access to our beingness within all dimensions. We download the conscious knowing of all that we are through the dimensional spheres of light, and authentically experience our finely-tuned perceptions here in the world of matter. The unseen becomes visible.

The quantum physics of this alteration affects everyone living on 5D Earth regardless of where we are in our evolutionary journey of life. During our refinement, the divine plan becomes tangible, and limitation transforms into possibility, probability, potentiality, and capability. This life-changing alteration is the ultimate transfiguration in human history and it virtually shifts us into the unknown so that we can become conscious of the new framework that we are creating. This major adjustment may be challenging; however, with all due respect for everyone's innate capability, this threshold is an essential step along the pathway of conscious evolution. Hence the holographic 5D template of understanding upholds the sacred space for this innovative refinement to remain in the forefront of our day-to-day lives.

An essential 5D quality for us to consciously synthesize is our resonance within the solar heart.

The solar heart is one of 5 higher chakratic gateways that align the circuitry within the Solar Spine. Its frequency transmits a unified resonance that supports the spiritual nexus of universal brotherhood: as above, is below. The cosmic cadence within this gateway connects all life everywhere. It is the energetic distributor for an alchemical elixir of unified light that emits an immense cosmic pulsation by way of the Central Sun or Galactic Core. Our merging with this authentic unified resonance requires that we are able to energetically sense or feel our cosmic pulsation of light as it radiates from the central sun into our physical body. As this fine-tuning takes place within us, it shifts us into a cohesive impetus that guides us to form a co-creative partnership with the unified aspect of self that simultaneously lives in multi-dimensional timelines of our awareness.

For this reason it is imperative that we effectively maintain this unified resonance, so that our physical body can hold the frequency of its 5th dimensional configuration. Hence, the solar heart is a subtle portal of energy that enables us to integrate all that we are as unified consciousness. Although everyone is unique and senses or receives energy differently, it is the unified cohesiveness within us that matters. Are you ready to experience the pulsation of your inner cadence as you live your life on the new Earth?

The more we understand the different ways that the holographic template of understanding embodies our consciousness, the more we energetically feel the pulsation of our cosmic cadence vibrate throughout our circuit system. Our ability to integrate the consciousness of this holographic template is determined by our capability to let go of the imbalanced self-limiting 3D Morphic beliefs and thoughts that binds us to collective consciousness. Hence, as we experience balance and synchronicity between matter and spirit, we shift our consciousness from 3D awareness into 5D perceptions of non-dualistic reality.

One of the authentic ways to fully living life on fifth dimensional Earth is to create a strong foundation by positioning both feet on its soil, and connect the elemental consciousness within our four lower bodies; physical, mental, emotional and spiritual to the crystalline core of 5D Earth. Following is an example of a resonant invocation that you can use to create the spiritual nexus of universal brotherhood: as above, is below.

Place your awareness inside the sacred chamber of the solar heart, located just below the V-notch positioned at the top of the sternum, and just behind the thymus gland.

While inside your sacred chamber of light connect with the consciousness of your four lower bodies.

Shift your focus to the core of the new Earth.

Allow your physical body to resonate with the consciousness of 5D Earth, as it assimilates new encodements into your physiological circuitry.

Place your awareness on the mental body.

Allow it to resonate with innovative thought,
as it integrates its 5D codes into your neurocircuitry.

Focus your awareness on the emotional body.

Feel your emotions resonate with 5D stability and infinite love, as it assimilates new encodements into your emotional circuitry.

Return your focus to the core of 5D Earth.

Locate your grounding cord and grab hold of it.

Align the physical, mental and emotional bodies with each other.

Sense or feel your spiritual body in the core of 5D Earth, Align it with the other 3 bodies and envision all 4 lower bodies connecting with the Central Sun in Earth's Milky Way.

Sense or feel your resonant pulsation of light as it descends from the Central Sun into the core of new Earth.

Silently repeat after me,
I AM fully present here on fifth dimensional Earth.

And so it is.

As we move through the threshold of 5th dimensional consciousness, we have an opportunity to simultaneously experience qualities such as; alignment, balance, creativity, abundance, certainty, ease, grace and joy. While we integrate the initial phase of fifth dimensional understanding we shift our perceptions, and consider the many opportunities that we have to create a solid foundation for living life on the new Earth.

One of the ways to experience our cohesion is to become aware of and integrate essential 5D qualities for living life on fifth dimensional Earth. Some of these qualities are:

Acceptance: the innate ability to accept ourselves, the way we are, as well as allowing others their choice to just be; acceptance for the way in which the present moment reveals itself;

Alchemical Elixir: spiritual nectar; resonant pulsation of light; transmits the essence of infinite love;

Alchemy: transfigures physical matter through intention;

Alignment: conscious awareness of bringing our life into balance; configuration of balanced energy within 5D templates;

Alteration: life-changing; shifting consciousness within dimensional timelines of awareness;

Authenticity: be true to yourself and acknowledge that the deep-seated nature of all that you are is already within the core of your 5D humanness;

Blueprint: geometric grid of light that sustains stellar encodements, as in 12 configurations of original DNA;

Change: expect the unexpected as constant change is the only stable condition. Remember that as a quantum being of light and energy we are responsible for our actions;

Circuit System: physiological circuitry; elemental holding vessel for the unified circuit system; reflects spiritual aspects in the circuit system that are cosmic in nature; neurocircuitry, emotional circuitry, spiritual body;

Clarity: emanates as full knowing. Our crystalline conversion to this 5D quality is crucial for our capacity to guide ourselves throughout the different phases of multidimensional life;

Conscious Evolution: awareness of spiritual growth through human development; evolving as unified consciousness;

Conscious Knowing: immediate recognition of energetic transmissions that originate beyond human intellect; realization of truth;

Conscious Preference: the art of consciously living in human embodiment without the framework of ancient conditioning; enables us to take every step of our evolutionary passage; be responsible for the chain of events that we create in our life; stability of this 5th dimensional quality emanates a vibration that streams outward into infinity; therefore, as co-creator we manifest the experiences we choose to have;

Continuum: time-space continuum; time experienced in another dimension; past and future experienced in the present moment; spherical time and space;

Conversion: transmutation of our awareness from self-limiting beliefs and thoughts to a heightened understanding; transfigures imbalanced energy within the Morphic field of collective consciousness; brings our experiences into the present moment; synthesizes conscious mastery with our divine birthright and our divinity;

Crystalline: perfected state;

Descension: merging of soul in the physical body; merging with resonant pulsations of unified consciousness and experienced while living life on 5D Earth;

Dodecahedron: platonic solid with 12 faces to its design; sustains the frequency for the interstellar substance ether;

Dimension: location of time and space; timeline of awareness in which everything exists simultaneously; infinite dimensions that are both interdimensional and multidimensional; synthesizes space and time;

Fifth Dimensional Consciousness: resonant field of awareness that sustains a multitude of frequencies; conscious awareness of one's infinite existence;

Freedom: results in letting go of the story that binds us to the Morphic field of collective consciousness; act of authentically letting go requires forgiving others for their choices in life and what we think they have done to us;

Fusion: that which is greater than the sum of its parts; cohesion within unified consciousness;

Gold-Platinum Light: resonant pulsation of light that amplifies the electron in the central conduit;

Golden Age: seventh era of light; unified continuum within time and space; development of self-sufficient communities based on conscious awareness; new blueprint for human life;

Grace: the enhancement of all that we are; is a god-given gift to those who accept their authenticity and attainment of true mastery.

Gratitude: remembering how blessed we are and being grateful for everything in our life, especially the impediments, consequences, and aversions as they train us to appreciate the goodness that 5D life has to offer; implies that we accept the way in which life reveals itself in every moment; opportunity to see all that we are given in each moment;

Grid System: geometric blueprint of interstellar frequencies of light; grid work around 5D Earth; ley lines form different grids;

Hologram: balanced 5D image that sustains heightened frequencies; imbalanced 3D image that reinforces dualistic realities, polarization, and projection of thoughts and beliefs; images from a split laser beam;

Honesty: applies to every aspect of 5th dimensional life on Earth. Everything we say and every action we take is recorded at subtle levels; if we participate in dishonesty it is crucial that we bring complete resolution to that which we have created;

Integrity: this 5D quality is absolutely crucial to living in multidimensional life; any individual or business institution that lacks the attributes that this essential conversion requires may be challenged in upholding the frequency of the new blueprint;

Humility: is being fully present in the heart; being modest about everything that we do;

I AM: “I” is the witnessing presence within unified consciousness and “AM” is All-That-Is witnessing itself; covenant of light between the human self, higher self, and all-That-Is; evolution of soul as it returns to its divine blueprint;

Icosa-Dodecahedron: energetically blends water with the interstellar substance ether; geometric air-based solid of pentagons and triangles that sustain an advanced interstellar frequency of light;

Infinite Love: is without limits or barriers; the result of appreciation for the breath of life that flows through us such as, gratitude, heart-felt love towards others, peace, equality, divinity, synchronicity and synergy; assimilation of this heightened aspect of love unifies all life and its solar frequency emanates outward to all aspects of our consciousness that simultaneously lives in other star systems, galaxies and universes; as we expand our awareness to living from the place of “infinite love” this finely tuned component of love becomes a pre-requisite for evolving within the oneness of unified consciousness;

Intention: is the gratitude statement for the manifestation of our purpose and cosmic mission while on the new Earth; awareness that all possibilities remain dormant until we choose to show up and align with the essential experiences that enrich our life;

Integration: organization of the integral whole; fusion of light or intelligence as an innate principle of knowing;

Joy: an essential multidimensional quality that unlocks the gateway to experiencing inner passion in everything that we do in life and for all that we have to offer to others;

Knowing: is the innate ability to receive an immediate download of energetic transmissions; an intuitive inspiration that comes before the perception of rational awareness; as cosmic intelligence and 5th dimensional intuition work together as natural partners, their cohesion creates a divinely guided apparatus to experience an inner dialogue of multidimensional communication; neutralization of all opposition from any inner or external conflict; mirrors all that we energetically sense and feel;

Passion: this innate quality requires that we only do what we love, for it is the authentic way to the materialization of alchemy;

Physiological Circuitry: elemental holding vessel for the unified circuit system; reflects spiritual aspects in the circuit system that are cosmic in nature;

Potential: consciously manifests our purpose or mission while we are on the new Earth; all that we prefer to experience is at our doorstep, and we have an opportunity to hold the vision of perfection so that it is reflected back to us; capable of being; fountain of creativity;

Purpose: our purpose of life experience and self-realization of all that we are as quantum beings of light and energy.

Refinement: fine-tuning within one's consciousness;

Resonance: vibrations of different frequencies on the same wavelength; fundamental conductor and building block of the universe; inner vibrations activated in response to and external stimulus; turns words into action and desires into reality; opens gateways and vortices to multidimensional awareness; an invisible field where co-creation occurs;

Responsibility: accept full responsibility for all of our creations; living in integrity with our spoken words, actions and deeds;

Solar Heart: energetic distributor of light; sustains the alchemical elixir of infinite love; cosmic cadence that emanates from the central sun or galactic core; pulsation of light located just below the thymus gland and deep within the sternum; unified heart within all consciousness; sacred chamber of light that enables us to access heightened states of awareness;

Solar Spine: Synthesis of the seven primary chakratic centers and the 5 higher solar gateways;

Synergy: an inward/outward perception of union within multidimensional realities; unified experience; to synergize energy is to use the highest vibration of light available for essential transfiguration;

Synthesis: fusion of separation within consciousness as in a unified experience of wholeness;

Synchronicity: the gateway to the present moment and all that is authentic and real; each moment shifts into the next without any point of reference; this attribute enables us to manage our energy in every moment rather than our time;

Timelines: interdimensional or multidimensional realities that change according to the relevant density;

Time-Space Continuum: time and space where all multiplicities of time and space are experienced simultaneously;

Transfiguration: meltdown of density within the elemental circuit system-physical, mental and emotional;

Transmutation: change to another phase of awareness; experiential process that purifies, heals and perfects;

Truth: we understand the purpose for human embodiment; acknowledgement of other interplanetary civilizations; experience of our full capacity for life on 5D Earth;

Unified Circuit System: complex grid system that infuses with the meridians of our physical body through the central nervous system to the brain; functions as a unit of wholeness to balance our body's electric, magnetic, and subtle circuitry; point of reference for the integration and stabilization of soul;

Unified Consciousness: inner conversion rather than a reference to the many; conversion of consciousness such as, individual, global, multidimensional, as well as within star systems, galaxies and universes;

Vibrational Frequency: emanation of oneness; wave(s) of energy that flow throughout our physical body; electrical charge within the circuitry of atoms, molecules and cells;

These 5D qualities are only some of the many attributes that we are going to integrate while living on fifth dimensional Earth. As we continue to move forward with our human progression, additional awareness of the holographic template of understanding will be made available to us.

“We are the unified aspect of self.

As we sense or energetically feel the qualities within the 5D template of understanding we honor the divine nature of each one.

We are the conscious activity that invokes balanced partnership from within.

We transmute any beliefs that no longer serve us.

We grant new direction to our lives and leave our footprint along the way.

We are the creator of our present reality, and maintain deep gratitude and appreciation for all of our experiences.

We truly see the gifts that life’s experiences offer us, and as the essence of our being experiencing the purpose of life’s sacred meaning we emanate infinite love towards all life on fifth dimensional Earth.

As a co-creator of the endless flow that miracles and manifestations abide in,

We are at one with all of humanity sharing a common vision, and through this unified vision we are able to fulfill our divine purpose.

We are quantum beings experiencing the highest capability of human life.

And so it is.”
